Minutes from January 13th 2020 Meeting

- Meeting called to order at 6:59 pm by President Neal Perkins.
- We have 244 current members. Memberships expired on December 31st, and access will be denied (your card de-activated) on January 31st, if not renewed.
- Neal started the meeting by thanking all the new volunteer officers for volunteering Their time.
- Monica Mallen went over the treasurer report and explained that for the monthly Meetings the report will change to a monthly transaction detail report rather than a Full year profit/loss report. Dan Conrad made a motion to accept the treasurer report And this change and it was seconded by Matt Rusk. No opposed.
- Neal continued the meeting with old business starting with congratulating our Archer of the year- Greg Wooden, and thanking Butch, from Capital Lumber, again for Supporting our youth awards. As discussed at the annual meeting, CFA will donate $500.00 to the Scholarship Fund, along with use of the facilities. The final proposed By-Law addition, Article XVIII Liability Insurance Certificates, was agreed upon after some discussion and passed.
- In new business the board decided that for the Triple Crown we will just be getting plaques For 1st place cub and youth winners and metals for 2nd and 3rd place, this will cost around $500.00.
- Neal changed out burned out light bulbs and there are 3 that are not working and need replaced for Holes, this was approved. We are needing volunteers for the February and March triple crowns! If you Are willing to help please get ahold of one of the board members. Mary has offered to help teach people The registration process that would like to learn. We will be double scoring all triple crowns. We will Be doing a straight 40% payback for the Triple Crown for each leg and then a belt buckle for the overall Winner in March.
- Jim and Monica Mallen will go get permits for Bowhunter's Weekend and the RMA shoots for Curt Gowdy.
- Amy will be looking into CFA merchandise such as shirts, hoodies, and hats.
- There was a budget approved for advertising at the annual meeting, Neal brought up putting an ad in the traders, the board agreed and also discussed advertising on facebook, Instagram, and possible the outdoor expo.
- The VA hospital has asked to use CFA facilities and equipment for veterans to come out and shoot every 6-8 weeks for 1-2 hours (they would hold the insurance for this). The board approved and Kelly and Brian volunteered to help with this. No opposed.
- Neal will be getting the supplies to start stripping the floors, we still need some volunteers to help with this process, please let us know if you can help!
- The board approved for Greg Wooden to go ahead and buy new higher resolution security cameras.
- Our monthly league raffle winner was Gavin. Congratulations!
- Laura Ketterling from the scholarship foundation asked if CFA would be willing to keep the application on our website, if they can continue to meet in the clubhouse, and if they can use some of the attic storage. The board approved all. None opposed. The Scholarship Dinner will be April 18 @ 5pm.
- Neal wants to remind everyone that if you are a B.O.W member you can get 15% off at Sportsman's Warehouse! Get with Jim Mallen if you would like a membership!
- The meeting was adjourned at 8:12 PM by a motion from Jim and seconded by Matt.
