Minutes of July 10, 2017

in Attendance: Greg Wooden, Gary Cox, Myron Reed, David Hays, Mike Lancaster, Chad Whaley, Dan Conrad, Kayla Ketterling, Kent Ketterling, Connie Crandall, Mac Wilson, Michelle Wilson.

call to order 7:13 pm

Old Business:

Treasurers report was presented by Connie and accepted by Dan Conrad and seconded by Chad Whaley.

Connie is currently checking on finding better rates for our CD's and Savings.

Replacement cores for the 3D targets are scheduled to arrive the week of 07/10/2017.

RMAA shoot went well at Curt Gowdy State Park.

Super Day Volunteers requested Club info to display as well as a table and Chairs.

Capital Lumber and Mead Lumber are sponsors of the Championship Class this year's Bow Hunter Weekend.

New Business:

Need to add the Hunt raffle to the facebook page and newsletter. Sales are slow to this point.

Mac is purchasing water for the upcoming bow hunter weekend.

Need to repair the DVR with a new Hard drive (DVR is repaired and currently recording).

Porta-Potties are reserved for Bow Hunter weekend.

Need Coolers for water on the course.

Club purchased a small utility trailer for hauling targets at our outdoor events. Passed by a unanimous voted by all present.

Club needs cleaned up. David Hays made the suggestion that we hire someone to clean the restrooms or setup a volunteer schedule by the members.

Michael Bean thanked the membership for running the club and keeping it organized. He also proposed a new non official position to organize volunteers and handle comments and suggestions. The members present voted to allow Michael to assume that role.

Final work party for Bow Hunter weekend is Monday July 31, 2017.

The club is also raising money for the kids bow to be given away at bow hunter weekend.

Motion to adjourn by Chad Whaley, second Greg Wooden. Adjourn 8:34 pm.

The Cheyenne Field Archers had a busy June and July, hosting a booth for kids to shoot at Curt Gowdy SP during free camp and fish weekend. Thank You to Greg Wooden, Tim Zacharies and his sons Timmy and Daniel.

A big thank you to the Super Day Volunteers: David Hays, Myron Reed, Tim Zacharias, Monica and Jim Mallon, Mary and Al Tharp, Alice Tharp, AJ Tharp, Lora Ketterling, John Wilson, Callista Wilson, Kent Ketterling.

Left: Al Tharp, Trace Ketterling and David Hays watching over City of Cheyenne OAP participants.

On July 10, 2017 the Cheyenne Field archers presented members of the Wyoming Game and Fish a check for $1000 for the Access Yes program. For every dollar donated, it opens up roughly 4 Acres of private ground for public hunting, fishing, hiking and such. The benefits of this program are far reaching, not just for bow hunters.

Thank you David Hays for mowing the outdoor range and around the building.

Thank you Michelle Wilson and kids for cleaning the restrooms at the club.

Load trailers and finalize plans for bow hunter weekend Monday evening July 31, 2017 at 6 pm. All help is appreciated.
